TECHNOLOGY SUMMARY

One of my primary priorities in life is to give back to, and as well work with, those who make up the communities around me, and I believe this endeavor will be achieved through value-driven work with data. I hope to do this by applying my solid understanding in SQL and Python.

Solid fundamental understanding of full-stack web development

- Strong skills in HTML/CSS with relevant frameworks such as Bootstrap and Sass
- Understanding of crucial programming concepts such as modular code, inheritance, polymorphism and object-oriented design

Database design and maintenance skills

- Able to build an efficient database from the ground up, through both GUI (SQL Server Management Studio) and SQL methods
- Proficient understanding of syntax and data types
- Able to query and sort data
- Proficient understanding of inner, outer, left and right joins
